CSP 6970: Practicum in College Student Personnel
Due December 3, 2012

Student's Name: Leslie Meyer

Supervisor's Name: John Clark

Department/Office & Institution: Care Services - Highlands College

Please use the following scale to assess the competencies and performance of the student whose practicum experience you have supervised this semester:

- 1 = low level; needs improvement; did not meet my expectations
- 2 = moderate level; adequate; met some, but not all, of my expectations
- 3 = high level; good; consistent with my expectations
- 4 = exceptionally high level; superior; exceeded my expectations
- N/A = Not applicable; no grounds upon which to base an evaluation

4 1. Degree to which objectives listed on the Practicum Approval Form were met

If these objectives were not fully accomplished, what factors contributed to or accounted for this (e.g., unrealistic objectives, poor time management, etc.)

See attached sheet

Additional comments regarding overall performance of the student in meeting the objectives specified for the practicum:

Objectives:

Successful completion of:

- UNIV 1300 curricula review and selection.

Leslie made a thorough review of available curricula, and made an excellent selection.

- Teaching UNIV 1300.

Leslie is currently teaching UNIV 1300. Her style is interactive, highly effective, and exceeds my expectations.

- Individual career counseling and job search coaching.

Leslie and I have collaborated in offering evening career services. She has proven to be an excellent, and gifted, career adviser and job search coach. She is highly engaging and empathetic, and has a strong ability to help clients see strengths and attributes in themselves which they had not previously been aware of. She regularly goes beyond my expectations, and on several occasions with students she has assisted with projects such as resume advising, has offered to review subsequent drafts via email in her own time.

- Active promotion of evening hours.

Leslie's ideas for promotion went far beyond my own thoughts, and have been well executed.

Working with Leslie has been a delight. I have rarely met someone with her passion, commitment and professionalism. Leslie has not met my expectations – she has consistently exceeded them. I feel honored to have had a part in her development as a professional, and I believe that her impact in our field, and in the experience of the students she serves during her career, will be remarkable.
